

Iditarod Odyssey 2009

*Nature's Kennel Iditarod Sled Dog Racing Team
Ed Stielstra, McMillan, Michigan*

Hear the amazing stories of incredible sled dogs.

Embrace the challenges of the Last Great Race.

Learn about what it takes to train and race a top Iditarod team.

In 2008, Ed proved that he has what it takes to train and race a top Iditarod team. Finishing in 29th place, he was the top Iditarod finisher from outside of Alaska and Canada. Ed will be competing in his fifth Iditarod race in March of 2009. After completing the race, Ed will tour the U.S. to share his experiences through an incredible slideshow of Alaska's raw beauty and unbelievable tales from the Iditarod trail.

The Iditarod Odyssey 2009 Tour is scheduled for April and May, 2009. The Iditarod Odyssey presentation can be geared toward any audience, venue, or event and includes a slide show presentation and a visit from Ed's MVD (Most Valuable Dog) from the 2009 Iditarod. Presentation cost begins at $750 for a two hour program and question and answer session. Please ask about our rates for schools and non-profit organizations.
