MUSHERS CONTINUE TO SIGN-UP

July 24, 2006

Hi Boys & Girls,

Mushers have been signing up for the Iditarod continuously since the first day of sign-up on June 25. We now have 73 mushers from all over the United States, Canada, Norway, Germany. That is more mushers than we have had at this point in previous years. There is a growing list of mushers who say they are going to sign up sometime between now and the close of entries on December 1 of this year. Maybe this will be the biggest field of mushers and dogs every.

There are a lot of new names on the list as 22 rookies have "thrown their hat in the ring" for the 2007 race. It is going to be really exciting.

It is hard to think about the race when it is so nice outside. Today, the sun is shining and it is a warm and lazy day. I just want to stretch out on the grass in the sun and doze the afternoon away.

I will be posting about my trip to Alaska's famous "Saturday Market" which has become the Saturday and Sunday market in the past two years. It is an awesome place to go.

I hope everyone is having a great summer and that you are looking forward to another few weeks of fun before school starts.

Until next time,

Lots of Tail Wags,
Zuma
